

Entry requirements for the Bailiwick of Guernsey

- The Bailiwick of Guernsey continues to have testing and self-isolation requirements for persons arriving into the islands. It is the responsibility of the person travelling to the Bailiwick of Guernsey to check the current requirements before they travel and make sure they are prepared.
- The requirements for testing and self-isolation differ based on a country or regions classification. Due to its prevalence rate for cases of Covid-19, France has been classified as a category 4 country from 00:01 on 29 July – this means that all arrivals from France are required to self-isolate for at least 14 days on arrival into the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Countries Classification

	Prevalence	Testing	Self-isolation
(Air Bridge) Category 1	Equivalent to the Bailiwick of Guernsey and no community seeding	No test required	None required
Category 2	Less than 30 per 100,000	Test on arrival (Day 1) and test on Day 7	Self-isolation until the receipt of a negative result on Day of arrival test then passive follow-up until day 14
Category 3	Between 30 to 100 per 100,000	Test on arrival (Day 1) and Day 7	Self-isolation until the receipt of a negative result on the Day 7 test then passive follow-up until Day 14
Category 4	More than 100 per 100,000	Test on arrival (Day 1) and Day 13	Self-isolation until the receipt of a negative result on the Day 13 test with 21 days of self-isolation for people declining testing

- The country and regional classifications are published at <https://covid19.gov.gg/guidance/travel/countries>. The list is reviewed on a regular basis and can change at short notice.
- If people decline to take a test on arrival they will have to self-isolate for 21 days.
- All arrivals are required to register on the Travel Tracker and enter journey details up to 2 days before arrival in the Bailiwick.
- From 14 May, Covid tests for people arriving in the Bailiwick are charged at £25 per test. These can be paid for through the Travel Tracker.
- You must not leave your place of self-isolation during the period that you are required to self-isolate. This is a legal requirement and failure to comply is a criminal offence.
- At this time, the Bailiwick of Guernsey is not currently accepting visiting vessels from Category 3 or Category 4 regions or countries outside of the Common Travel Area (which comprises the UK, Republic of Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey and the Isle of Man). Private vessels visiting from France are not currently accepted in the Bailiwick of Guernsey. This is because the harbour facilities cannot accommodate significant numbers of vessels isolating for seven or more days. Individuals wishing to visit the Bailiwick of Guernsey should arrange travel through commercial air or ferry operators.
